Announcements:

Rick expressed how nice we all looked in our business casual attire. He previously had gotten a message from Kelsey Bates' mom that she and Kelsey would not be able to attend today's meeting. They will not be able to set another date, as they both have back-to-school commitments. On Monday, August 6, Rick will go to MacArthur High at 3:30 to present the trophy to Kelsey's mother. Fay Hopkins agreed to be there to assist. Kelsey Bates was the winner of the Optimist Essay Contest at the local level. Our club had sponsored her in the competition.

In other announcements, there will be a Board Meeting next Tuesday at Rick's conference room at 6:30. All are invited to attend. Rick asked that you let him know if you have anything to add to the agenda.

Russell paid Fay Hopkins, District Treasurer, our District dues.

Jack Hopkins and Rick Coleman both related humorous true experiences.

Our speakers were our own members, Jack and Fay Hopkins, who related the fun and interesting time they had in Milwaukee at the OI Conference. We all enjoyed hearing of their trip.

Jack Kellmann won the kitty---$10.00.

Following the Optimist Creed, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Becky Kuykendall
